In.Pact

The IN.PACT project aims to address the growing needs of European youth, particularly those in vulnerable situations, by building a collaborative network of youth organizations.

It focuses on developing youth facilitators' skills, empowering young people as space facilitators, and increasing youth engagement in participatory practices.

Through fostering inclusive spaces and empowering youth and youth workers, the project seeks to:

- Build more resilient communities
- Reduce marginalization
- Drive positive social change

Objectives

Building a Collaborative Network

Connecting youth organizations across Europe to overcome isolation, share best practices, and enhance collective action.

Strengthening Skills of Youth and Youth Workers

Providing specialized training in participatory methodologies, leadership, and facilitation through a hybrid program combining online and in-person modules.

Reducing Youth Marginalization

Empowering marginalized youth, including NEETs and young migrants, to become active community leaders.

Activities

Project aims at creating impact through the following activities:

Mapping of Participatory Practices

Identifying, analyzing, and connecting youth participation experiences across Europe.

Establishing a Community of Practice (CoP)

Bringing together stakeholders who have successfully implemented these participatory practices.

Hybrid Training Program

Combining online and in-person modules for training youth facilitators.

Smart Labs Implementation

Establishing local community spaces for hands-on participatory training practices and youth-led initiatives.

Co-funded by the European Union

In.Pact

These activities will lead to the development of the following

Key Resources

1 An Interactive Best Practices Map

for youth organizations, workers, and facilitators to foster a network for knowledge sharing and enable the replication of successful initiatives.

2 A Flexible Training Package

on youth participation, accessible online and adaptable to different contexts.

3 A Smart Lab Implementation Handbook

for replicating these practices across other communities.

IN.PACT empowers young individuals to become change agents while building a sustainable network of participatory organizations and practices. This initiative aims to decrease youth marginalization and promote active, meaningful community involvement across Europe.
